

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1901, 9 A. M.

NO. 26

MIDDLEBURG.

Nathan Hicks is on the sick list. The band boys went to Dunnville fishing Tuesday.

Mrs. Patsy Luster died Wednesday after an illness of several months.

Rev. J. Benton Ferrell will begin his pastorate at the Baptist church the 2nd Sunday in June. He will move to the parsonage about July 1.

Charley Bratton and David Kidd have returned from the war in the Philippines, neither of them looking any worse for their long stay in that warm region.

Some of the members of the base ball club here took us to task for not reporting the game between them and the Hustonville club here some two weeks ago. We were not in town when the game was played, but will state for the satisfaction of the boys that the "Hustonvillians" came down and got licked and then the "Middleburgamots" went to Hustonville and got licked and that was all there was of it.

A round rock kept in the fire place is a sure preventative against hawks catching chickens. This remedy against the dangerous foe of the feathered tribe has not yet been tried by the writer and the "old woman" is having much trouble with Mr. and Mrs. Hawk, while other ladies hereabout, who are very careful with their "hawk rock" are never bothered. Remember the rock must be kept slightly warm, but not too warm.

Rev. Eugene Sallee, son of Rev. J. M. Sallee, preached at Calvary Sunday. His father organized the church about 25 years ago and worked hard for it so long as he remained in this section, but since his departure for other fields the church has ceased to be a working congregation and numerous efforts have failed to revive it, but owing to the popularity of his father, the young man was greeted with a good audience Sunday and he will probably hold a few days meeting.

The following from Mrs. Sue Steenberger, formerly of Rowland, but now living at Sulphur Springs, Texas, is greatly appreciated: "Enclosed find $1 for another year's subscription for the very best and most interesting paper published in Kentucky. I just can not do without your valuable paper. It is like a ray of sunshine to all of our household. We are very much pleased with Texas. It is a grand old State and can boast of good people. Crops are looking fine now. We have a nice climate. We sincerely hope Mr. W. P. Walton will succeed in his race for R. R. commissioner. He is the right man for the office. He is a true and tried democrat. Long may you both live and may you continue to publish the dear old INTERIOR JOURNAL that I have been reading since I was a girl."

A VERY REMARKABLE REMEDY.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore, and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future.' Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

W. P. Walton, the veteran editor and democratic wheelhorse of Stanford, Ky., and candidate for the democratic nomination for State railroad commissioner in the 2d district, composed of 31 counties, was at the Palace. Col. Walton has been a hard worker in his party for over 30 years, and this is the first time he has ever sought recognition in the way of an office, and there is an apparent unanimity of sentiment in his party to give him the position he seeks. "I have no opposition for the nomination so far," said he, "and have many pledges of support from all over the district. If this good luck continues I will be in great shape to carry the district by an increased majority." —Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Doctor—What your mother-in-law needs is to be sent at once to a warmer climate. The Son-in-Law—Then you'll have to administer the poison yourself, doctor. I haven't the heart to.

Low Rates via Queen & Crescent Route to the following points: Covington, State Encampment, G. A. R., June 3-4. One fare the round trip. Ask ticket agents for full particulars.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For ale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Horace A. Means, Central Kentucky buyer for the Ninth Street Tobacco House, of Louisville, and well known throughout the State in business circles, committed suicide at Lexington by shooting himself.

Eight lives are believed to have been lost in the floods near Bristol, Tenn. The property loss is estimated at several hundred thousand dollars. Several railroad bridges were destroyed and traffic is at a standstill.

Secretary Root has approved the action of the board of officers at West Point which recommended the dismissal of five cadets and the suspension of six others. The trouble grew out of the attempt to suppress hazing.

Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham, wife of the governor, will on June 4 pay a visit to Gethsemane Abbey. She will be the second woman to pass its precincts. The first was Mrs. J. Proctor Knott, when her husband was governor.

Gen. John B. Gordon, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, has appointed Miss Bessie Draper, of Atlanta, as sponsor for the entire South at the coming Confederate Veterans' Reunion to be held in Memphis.

The United States Trust Company of New York has been sued by the Commonwealth of Kentucky for $135,000 and damages, and, if properly treated as will be good returning until June 4, but may be extended to June 19 by depositing with the joint agent.

William Hampton, a prisoner at the Louisville jail, committed suicide by jumping headfirst from the third tier of cells.

Ex-Gov. John Riley Tanner, of Illinois, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at Springfield of rheumatism of the heart.

If your dog is ugly, don't take any chances on him. Tan his hide, but take it off from him first.

BRODHEAD.

Albright & Adams are doing a fine business. They say they can not afford to let any one get out of their store if they have any money or produce.

The Brodhead Fair Association did not elect any officers at the proper time, and we suppose the officers of last year will hold over and have a fair about the last of August.

Joshua Dunn went to Lowell and Lancaster this week. Bro. A. J. Pike went to Gilead church in Madison last Friday night and returned Sunday night. He has a very sick baby.

J. G. Frith is the prettiest man in our town since he cut off his upper lip. It is a pity he is not a widower. He is the most popular man among the ladies of any man in town, young or old. This is no joke.

Mrs. Mary Colver is still improving and can now get down in town again. R. S. Martin is in Junction City this week. J. Chestnut, of Oak Hill neighborhood, one of the fair directors, was in town Wednesday.

Two out of the 37 republican candidates in this county were in our town this week, viz: Bogie Phillips, of Middle, and D. O. Lamb, of Pine Hill. Each one seems to think he has the race won. They all think that a nomination in this county is equivalent to an election. Brown & Cress, of Preachersville, are helping James Bays buy hogs in our section.

Born, to Mrs. Tilden Frith, a fine boy. Our town will soon be democratic. R. L. Brown, of Mt. Vernon, comes down about every two weeks to see some one in our town. He is an attorney at law and it may be he has legal business to see after. R. H. Hamm, our traveling man, spent Sunday and Monday with homefolks. Mrs. Robert Payne and daughter, of Crab Orchard, were visiting Mrs. Dr. I. S. Burdett. T. G. Dunn, of Fort Worth, Texas, came in Tuesday. He came to visit his father, Mr. Joshua Dunn, and other relatives in this neighborhood. Mr. Dunn is looking well. Edgar Dunn, of Danville, is with us this week. He came to see his Texas brother and spend a few days with relatives and friends. J. O. Minor, of Junction City, is in Brodhead trying to work up a lodge of the Improved Order of Red Men. A. K. McClary was in town Wednesday. "Cade" is looking young and well. Master Percy Goebel Pike, who has been very sick for some time, is not much better. Mrs. Cash Heron, of The Glades, was in Brodhead Wednesday. Mr. John Brown and wife, of the same section, were in town.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld. J. G. Livingston writes that he will preach at Gum Sulphur Sunday night, next.

Rev. E. W. Barrett held a meeting at the Jellico Baptist church, which had 11 additions.

The important question of revising the creed is being argued in the Presbyterian General Assembly at Philadelphia.

The First Presbyterian church at Richmond has called Rev. B. M. Shive, of Campbellsville, at $1,400 a year.

Bishop Morrison raised $4,250 before dedicating Lucinda B. Helm Memorial church at Elizabethtown, which put it out of debt.

Eld. Joseph Ballou will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning. In the evening the pastor will preach on "Intemperance."

The Central Holiness camp meeting at Wilmore, will be held Aug. 13-22, with Rev. C. J. Fowler, D. D., of Haverhill, Mass., in charge.

The Cumberland Assembly reprimanded the Owensboro presbytery for ordaining a man lacking in the prescribed educational qualifications.

The Cumberland Presbyterian general assembly defeated a motion to change the name of the church to the "American Presbyterian Church."

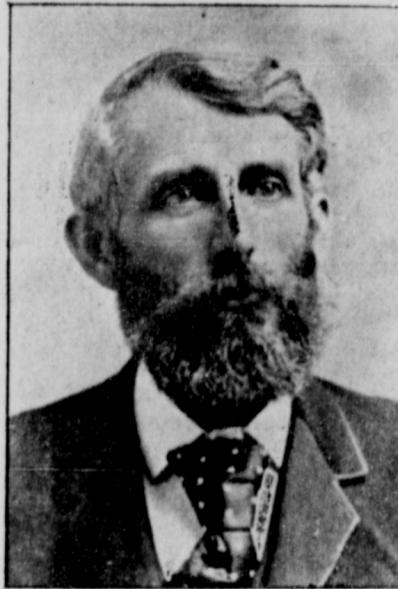

The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly is adverse to the consolidation of the Louisville and Danville Theological Seminaries on the ground that it was a tendency toward organic union between the Northern and Southern churches, and that it would exclude the teaching of the Southern church's distinctive principles.

The lines reaching Memphis will make a rate of one cent a mile on account of the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans' Association, May 28-30. Tickets will be on sale the 25th, 26th and 27th, and will be good returning until June 4, but may be extended to June 19 by depositing with the joint agent.

William Hampton, a prisoner at the Louisville jail, committed suicide by jumping headfirst from the third tier of cells.

Ex-Gov. John Riley Tanner, of Illinois, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at Springfield of rheumatism of the heart.

If your dog is ugly, don't take any chances on him. Tan his hide, but take it off from him first.

HON. GEORGE M. DAVISON, who has just been appointed assistant district attorney, is one of the shrewdest politicians in Kentucky. He has managed to keep on the good side of all the factions of his party and his appointment is therefore satisfactory to each of them. The Gray Gelding, as he is sometimes called, is a splendid organizer and gets in his work in a quiet way, while the other fellows shout and shout. That is the secret of his success in usually getting what he goes after. He has held numerous offices. Starting as master commissioner of the Lincoln circuit court, he has been representative in the Legislature, county judge, member of Congress and now steps into a good thing for four years more. He was district elector in 1888 and 1892 and has been chairman of the Lincoln county republican committee ever since that party had a standing in the county. One of the most admirable traits in Mr. Davison's character is his loyalty to his family and his devotion to his widowed mother. Nearly all he has ever made has been spent on them and those who know these facts can not help admiring him personally, much as they may object to him politically. The INTERIOR JOURNAL has jolted him a little in times past, but it was more in fun than in anger, and there never was a time that it really had any feeling against him, so it very heartily joins with his friends in congratulating him over the latest turn of his good luck.

HUBBLE.

Dr. Hickle has gone to Louisville for a few days.

George Wood has bought some lambs for June 1st to 10th at 5c.

Joe Rice has bought a new threshing outfit and all wish him success in his new enterprise.

Tom McMelon has added carriage painting to his shop here and is doing some nice work.

Letters from F. P. Bishop, in Oklahoma, state that he is doing well and delighted with his new home. He also states that the report that part of the crew taken there by the Shelleys was killed by Indians, is false and that people out there are too busy to fall out, much less to kill one another.

James Wilmet's little boy, Bryan, was taken very ill Monday but is believed to be better now. L. F. Hubble, was called Tuesday night to see his mother, who is not expected to live. H. J. Luce is attending district conference at Perryville. E. T. Minor is at home again, still improving after a stay in Louisville for two weeks.

Much has been said and done in reference to the location of our school house. But when our superintendent made a visit some days ago to view the proposed sites and after obtaining more land on which to build, of Mr. Spoonamore, ordered it located on the Danville and Lancaster pike some distance from the Methodist church, and work begun on the foundation Wednesday morning.

BEWARE OF A COUGH

A cough is not a disease but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis, which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderfully successful and gained its wide reputation and wonderful sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing. If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

The breaking of the dam and consequent loss of 65 million gallons of water at Pike's Peak reservoir may cause trouble out there, but it will cut no ice in the Kentucky editors' visit to that place. All they want is water enough to keep the engine in steam.—Lancaster Record.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physician. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

SENATOR MCLAURIN, of South Carolina, who is predicting all sorts of break ups in the politics of the solid South, seems to have changed his mind in a slight. He made a speech in the Senate against the annexation of the Philippines and bitterly arraigned the president for his policy. His vote, however, was necessary for the treaty and it was gotten not only for it, but for all other questions the president was interested in. The fact that the patronage of South Carolina was placed in his hands shows what at least was a part of the mess of pottage he got for his birthright. In discussing the predicted break-up, Senator Carmack, of Tennessee, says it is all nonsense. Southerners do not take to colonization, high tariffs, large standing armies or trusts and they can not be wheedled like children into accepting such policies. The republican party, even with the Negro disqualified as a voter to some extent, is bound to continue to be a Negro party in the South, and as such white men will not join it. With the negro entirely eliminated from politics there might be a stronger tendency among the whites to divide, but as long as it is white against black, the republican party will not materially increase in the South. Federal patronage may buy a few fellows out for sale like McLaurin, but Gen. Wade Hampton's answer, when tendered the Columbia postoffice, will be the general answer of all honest Southerners, "I am not to be bought."

MAJ. A. T. WOOD, of Mt. Sterling, is a rambunctious, ring-tailed warrior, who professes to believe that Taylor oughtn't to have given up, but held on in spite of courts and law. Said the valiant individual at a republican pow-wow in Louisville yesterday: "If I had been elected governor I would be governor now or have remained governor so long as there was a man left to carry a musket. If I had held that chair I would have seen every brick torn down in Frankfort, but what I would have stayed." Those who remember what poor sticking qualities Maj. Wood developed when appointed U. S. Senator take his blood and thunder declarations now with a grain of salt. They really don't believe he would have stuck as long as Taylor. The mage ought to walk around the block and cool off. Nobody will take him seriously as long as he is in such an inflamed frame of mind.

MEN with money and charitably inclined should carry their desires into execution during their lives and not leave wills for the lawyers to fight and fatten over. Twenty-three years ago Samuel Wood, of Woodsburg, L. I., died leaving $1,000,000 to establish a College of Music which had been the desire of his life. During all these years the fight over the estate has been going on, till but $130,000 remain of the original bequest, the rest having been eaten up in fees and costs. When a great lawyer like Samuel Jones Tilden could not make a will that passed muster before the courts, it is almost useless for smaller fry to try. Therefore do today, what you intend shall be done with your money, for tomorrow you may die and your will will get "busted."

THE secretary of the Kentucky Press Association has issued a notice that the outing to be taken Aug. 1, will cost about $30 a person and that $17 must be forwarded to him from each person by July 20, to pay for dues and sleeping car fare. An extra cost of $5 will be assessed if money is not sent by that date. The outing as arranged is a very desirable one but we opine that many of the smaller newspaper men who thought everything would be free, will decide that they are too busy to take it.

THE height of absurdity in damage suits seems to have been reached when a woman sues the Galt House Company at Louisville for $10,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been suffered by slipping on a polished floor. As no security has to be given and as shyster lawyers are always ready to accept contingent fees in such blackmailing cases, people will continue to be annoyed with them. There should be a stringent law against such miserable litigation.

THE death of Gen. Fitz John Porter recalls the fact that he was dismissed from the U. S. army for cowardice in failing to take part in the battle of Bull Run. Twenty years or more after the war a commission appointed by the resident relieved him of the charges and Congress, after a long debate, affirmed it. The Dreyfus case in France was little more than a parallel of Porter's.

IN the bitterness of its soul, the Lexington Herald is forced to remark: "The next House will be democratic and by a safe majority, unless there is a marked change of opinion between now and the election." This honest confession is good for the soul, not naturally bad, but fearfully warped and nursing a grievance.

THE Louisville Times says that Senator Deboe and Congressman Boreing locked themselves in a room at the Louisville Hotel, blew out the gas and proceeded to settle the question of veracity between them, the former asserting and the latter denying that he ever pledged himself in written or oral manner to support the misfit for reelection as U. S. Senator. When anxious friends forced an entrance and broke the silence of the two awful hours, they found the Senator under the table and the representative up the chimney, with the question of veracity still unsettled, though it is dollars to doughnuts that it is the Senator who has been reckless in handling the truth.

THE doctors may have said a great many good things during their meeting at Louisville, and done much to advance the science they practice, but none of them said anything half as good as Young E. Allison said in his address, that is from the standpoint of a layman. The address was replete with wit and dry humor and was highly appreciated by the outsiders, the more so as it gave the doctors the grins.

THE efforts of the Louisville Post have been recognized by the republicans in Louisville. The city council elected it public printer over the Commercial 22 to 13. This is a rather cold potato but small favors are thankfully received, while Dick Knott will continue to hand around his hat and beg for alms, because of what "I done for snivil liberty."

P. WAT HARDIN is engaged in minding down in Georgia. Wat may dig himself out yet.—Paducah Democrat. And prove again that you can't keep a good man down.

POLITICAL.

Ex-Congressman Bouteille, of Maine, died at the McLean Asylum at Waverly, Mass.

County Judge Tilton, of Nicholas, who recently resigned and had his son appointed, is dead.

In Louisville a candidate for mayor has to put up $400 to enter the primary, county judge $250, sheriff $300, jailer $300 and so on.

At a meeting of the republican State central committee in Louisville, Judge James Wright, of Newport, was endorsed for State election commissioner.

The new republican State campaign committee is as follows: Richard P. Ernst, of Covington; George W. Long, of Leitchfield, and Clint McClarty, of Louisville.

Senator Deboe recommended Col. Ben Drane for appointment as postmaster at Frankfort, but the indications are that S. B. Holmes will be continued in office, as Senator Lindsay, his backer, has more influence with the administration than Deboe.

Capt. Kinsey J. Hampton, of Winchester, who was recently appointed by the president a quartermaster in the army, failed to pass the examination held in Manila on account of defective eyesight. He has been honorably discharged from the volunteer service, in which he has been a captain and quartermaster.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

THE public school gave holiday yesterday in order that its pupils might attend the graded school tournament at Lancaster.

WE are requested to announce that the Southern Military Band of Crab Orchard will give a free concert in the court-house yard commencing at 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

THE downpour of rain kept a good many away who had intended seeing Topsy Turvy at Walton's Opera House Tuesday night and the consequence was vacant chairs were greatly in the majority. It was a clever and clean presentation of the pretty four act comedy and we are sorry more of our people did not witness it. Mrs. A. B. Robertson, of whose elocutionary class all the ladies and gentlemen in the play are members, accompanied the company and must have been proud of the manner in which her students acquitted themselves. While alid well, Miss Clyde McGivens' role was the leading and most difficult one and she especially is to be congratulated on her work.

THIS AND THAT.

A Lebanon firm bought 16,000 pounds of wool at 17c.

J. M. Cress sold 50 barrels of corn to S. Morgan at $2.40.

The Adair News says that Columbia will have a fair some time in August.

Ten thousand crates of strawberries were shipped from Chattanooga yesterday.

A mob shot a negro to death near Memphis for living with a white woman.

Mrs. McKinley continues to improve and may be able to start for Washington Monday.

Jackson, Miss., has been selected as the next place of meeting by the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly.

At Bardstown, Wm. Campbell, member of a prominent Mercer county family, was given a five-year sentence for obtaining goods under false pretenses. He is a cousin of Carrie Nation.

The Cumberland river rose 15 feet in 24 hours at Williamsburg. Thousands of logs came down 10 abreast, which broke away from the mills at Pineview and up-river points. Most of them were caught.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Danville will hold her fair Aug. 6, 7, 8, 9.

Lawyer H. R. Hogg died at Richmond.

Greenup Jenkins, a Mexican war veteran, died in Mercer, aged 94.

Lightning played havoc with George Gridier's house and furniture in Casey.

The Middlesboro blast furnaces, idle since last spring, will blow in this week.

Mrs. L. H. Blanton is very ill at her home at Richmond and the sham battle was postponed.

Miss Mary A. Hart has been appointed postmaster at Bank Camp Mills, White county.

Attorney F. T. Hord, of Indianapolis, who committed suicide, had $165,000 insurance on his life.

A postoffice has been established at Hanging Rock, Perry county, with George W. Eversole postmaster.

Lewis Redd and James Nelson, Negroes, were drowned while fishing at Lock No. 5 in the Kentucky river.

Thomas R. Paragon has been appointed postmaster at Lily, Laurel county, and E. W. Graham at Dryden, Wayne county.

The local assessment in Pulaski was allowed to stand and Whitley was raised 2 per cent on town lots by the board of equalization.

Reuben Quinn, the murderer, sentenced to hang at Danville, May 29, has had his sentence suspended by the appellate court pending investigation of appeal.

Judge Evans set June 13 for creditors to appear in Smith & Jones' bankruptcy case and show cause why compromise should not be accepted. The firm did business at Livingston.

At Middlesboro, Hetty Stark, aged 18, grieving over the death of her brother, whom she killed last week upon his refusal to accompany her to a dance given at a neighbor's, blew out her brains Monday.

John Mitchell and John Green had a shooting affray near Woodbine, in which Mitchell shot Green in the abdomen, seriously wounding him. Green then shot Mitchell through the heart, killing him instantly.

Mrs. Anne Dickerson Brown filed petition for divorce at Nicholasville from Lewis Brown, charging him with cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Brown was Miss Anne Dickerson. She asks for $1,000 a year alimony and the custody of her only child, George.

The Somerset and Bob's Bar pipe line has been completed within 10 miles of Bob's Bar and the 60,000 barrels of oil stored there will be shipped to Somerset this month. J. P. Hornaday has just closed one of the largest deals made in the field, in which 5,000 acres of choice oil territory was transferred to New York capitalists, who will immediately contract for the development of the property.

When Judge Tinsley arrived at London Monday, he was met by a delegation of ladies from Pittsburgh and implored to come to their relief by putting a stop to the illegal sale of whisky in and around Pittsburgh. The judge inquired of them if they did not have a county judge. To this they replied that if they had a county judge in Laurel he had failed to render any service toward putting down this whisky traffic so far as they knew. He then asked if they had no county attorney. They answered that if the county had an attorney they knew nothing of it. He then asked if they did not have a sheriff. The reply came that the sheriff would come down and get drunk with the crowd and make as much noise as the rest of them. Then Judge Tinsley instructed the grand jury to look after the county officers.—Louisville Commercial.

MATRIMONIAL.

County Clerk Cooper hasn't issued a marriage license for nearly two weeks.

Mr. Jacob Strutton and Miss Eliza E. Knider were married at Lawrenceburg. The groom is 73 years old and the bride 46.

Miss Daisy Tinsley, of Barbourville, was married Wednesday morning to Dr. T. Catron, of Atlanta, Ga.

Moses Stephenson, 78, of Morning View, Ky., and Elizabeth Stephens, 70, of Kenton county, were married at Covington Monday.

The marriage of Miss Ann Shelby Magoffin, of Harrodsburg, to Mr. Wm. Austin, of Knoxville, is announced to occur on the 5th of June.

L. S. Scott, editor of the Barksville Herald, and Miss Ida Cowherd, of Adair county, were married in the Christian church at Cane Valley Wednesday.

Miss Maggie Chancellor, of Millersburg, who visited her cousins, Misses Lucie and Ophelia Chancellor, here last summer, was married Wednesday to Mr. Everett Thomason, of that place. The marriage took place at the Palace Hotel in Cincinnati.

A. Lewis, of Kentucky, after a short acquaintance with Miss Gertrude Jones, of Bowdoin, Ga., married her there, standing with witnesses at the long distance telephone, the ceremony being performed over the phone by the Rev. H. J. Ellis at Carrollton, Ga., 12 miles away, with witnesses in his presence.

John Carroll, of Wales, and Mary McAnnelley, of Wilmington, Delaware, were granted marriage license by County Clerk Nichols. The groom was rattled and couldn't remember his birthplace nor his age until his memory was refreshed by the father of the young lady. The ceremony was performed in the Gypsy camp.—Advocate.

John Carroll, of Wales, and Mary McAnnelley, of Wilmington, Delaware, were granted marriage license by County Clerk Nichols. The groom was rattled and couldn't remember his birthplace nor his age until his memory was refreshed by the father of the young lady. The ceremony was performed in the Gypsy camp.—Advocate.

INFLUENTIAL.

County Clerk Cooper hasn't issued a marriage license for nearly two weeks.

Mr. Jacob Strutton and Miss Eliza E. Knider were married at Lawrenceburg. The groom is 73 years old and the bride 46.

Miss Daisy Tinsley, of Barbourville, was married Wednesday morning to Dr. T. Catron, of Atlanta, Ga.

Moses Stephenson, 78, of Morning View, Ky., and Elizabeth Stephens, 70, of Kenton county, were married at Covington Monday.

The marriage of Miss Ann Shelby Magoffin, of Harrodsburg, to Mr. Wm. Austin, of Knoxville, is announced to occur on the 5th of June.

L. S. Scott, editor of the Barksville Herald, and Miss Ida Cowherd, of Adair county, were married in the Christian church at Cane Valley Wednesday.

Miss Maggie Chancellor, of Millersburg, who visited her cousins, Misses Lucie and Ophelia Chancellor, here last summer, was married Wednesday to Mr. Everett Thomason, of that place. The marriage took place at the Palace Hotel in Cincinnati.

A. Lewis, of Kentucky, after a short acquaintance with Miss Gertrude Jones, of Bowdoin, Ga., married her there, standing with witnesses at the long distance telephone, the ceremony being performed over the phone by the Rev. H. J. Ellis at Carrollton, Ga., 12 miles away, with witnesses in his presence.

John Carroll, of Wales, and Mary McAnnelley, of Wilmington, Delaware, were granted marriage license by County Clerk Nichols. The groom was rattled and couldn't remember his birthplace nor his age until his memory was refreshed by the father of the young lady. The ceremony was performed in the Gypsy camp.—Advocate.

Rice, Agent.

A GYPSY STORY.—The Paris News tells this funny one: During the encampment of the Gypsies there, one of the women went to a citizen's house in the absence of his wife and asked to tell his fortune. In a spirit of fun he agreed. The gypsy looked into his upturned palm and told him to place some silver therin. He produced a dollar, with the understanding that it was to be returned to him. The gypsy covered the dollar with a handkerchief and told him to place another piece of silver on top of it. He produced a half dollar. The fakir then murmured a lot of incantation, made several mysterious passes, then grabbed the money and made for the door. As she grabbed the money the gentleman grabbed her and held her around the waist with one arm while with the other he was endeavoring to recover his money. While thus engaged, the door opened and the gentleman's wife entered. It took two hours of explanations and $2 worth of ice cream soda to straighten out matters, and during the confusion the gypsy escaped with the money.

SAW MILL FOR SALE.

I desire to sell my saw mill or will trade it for stock, or will move it to a body of timber and saw it if party wishes.

G. W. SINGLETON, Crab Orchard.

Enthusiastic Celebration.

LEXINGTON, May 22.—One of the most enthusiastic celebrations in the history of Kentucky University was held Thursday evening, in honor of the victory of Root E. Moss, of Nashville, Tenn., who was K. U.'s representative in the contest of the Southern Oratorical Association, held at Austin, Texas, May 15. About 200 University boys met on the campus in front of the Art College, where they were joined by about 100 State College cadets, who brought their cannon with them. After several shots were fired, speeches were made by boys from both colleges, college songs were sung and college yells were given. Some more shots were fired from the cannon and the march was taken up for Hamilton College. The young ladies of that institution were entertained for awhile with the yells of both colleges delivered in the most impressive manner. The boys then formed by fours and marched in a double column down Broadway and Main Streets as far as the Phoenix Hotel. The noise made was heard all over Lexington. It was a "howling" success.

W. H. Traylor bought of James Riggs by 190 barrels of corn at $2.50 at the crib.

For SALE.—Good yearling mule, two good milk cows, 12 sheep and six heifers. Mark Hardin.

A pair of Norman horses sold in Iowa the other day at 11 cents a pound. They weighed 3,200.

For SALE.—Two Polled Angus bulls, ready for service. Good ones. J. W. Baughman, Stanford.

The small sum of $5 in the cost of the sire will often make $50 difference in the value of the colt.

Isaac Hubbard sold to Lutes &amp; Co., a hog for $22.52, or 5c a pound, and to Stigall Bros., 11 calves at $21.50.

The Georgetown Times reports sales of 54 hogs at 5.12¢, 400 lambs at $3.75 a head and 2,000 pounds of wool at 20¢.

At the sale of Shorthorns of C. L. Gerlaugh, at Osborn, Ohio, 35 sold, the males averaging $480 and the females $578.

As special commissioner, Capt. S. F. Rock sold to State Senator J. M. Thomas, of Paris, 3,221 acres of Jackson county land at about $4.

J. M. Sallee has sold his interest in the farm owned jointly to his partners, I. T. and T. S. Lanier, at $90, possession to be given Sept. 1st. Mr. Sallee gets the growing crops.

J. E. Clay sold to the United Dressed Beef Co., of New York City, 112 1,300-pound cattle at 5c. An Ohio man paid Mann &amp; Fuhrman $400 for a pair of fancy mules.—Paris Kentucky.

Covington, Arnold &amp; Bro., have received between 12,000 and 15,000 lbs. of wool, for which they paid from 12 to 20 cents. Deatherage &amp; Neff have bought about 10,000 pounds at the same figures.—Richmond Climax.

The Messrs. Beazley feel prouder than ever of their magnificent stallion, Marion Squirrel. A Troy, N. C., man who has a fine mare, brought her to Kentucky to breed to the best saddle stallion he could find and easily decided on the above horse.

John Hooker, of New London, O., sold the nine-year-old Hereford cow, Dolly II., with heifer calf at her side, for $5,000. The purchaser was N. W. Bowen, of Dolly II. Ind. The sire of the calf of Dolly II. catalogued as like, was sold for $1,200.
